

SE#: OP 11-22-10

Security Enhancement Release Notification

Adobe Acrobat has recently issued a security enhancement for their product (Adobe Vulnerability Identifier: APSA10-05). In order to patch this security enhancement, you must upgrade to Adobe Reader v 9.4. For more information on this security enhancement please visit the Adobe website at the link below.

<http://www.adobe.com/support/security/>

You can download the latest patched version of the Adobe Reader 9 from the website below.

<http://www.adobe.com/support/downloads/thankyou.jsp?ftpID=4851&fileID=4526>

MICROS strongly recommends that its Opera customers who have installed Adobe version 9.x install this Adobe security enhancement at their earliest convenience.

Adobe is providing this security enhancement software at no charge and it can be self-installed. The installation of this Adobe enhancement by MICROS is a scheduled event and is a chargeable service.

Opera customers who would like MICROS to install this Adobe security enhancement for them can contact their MICROS sales representative to order and schedule the installation.